

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the solid waste services provided in our communities are an integral and essential part of the everyday lives of our residents; and
- WHEREAS, support of an understanding and informed community is vital to the efficient operation and collections of garbage, recycling, yard waste, bulky items, and waste disposal services; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Durham Department of Solid Waste Management services over 77,000 homes and downtown establishments weekly; and
- WHEREAS, the men and women of the City of Durham Department of Solid Waste Management work diligently each day to keep the neighborhoods and communities of Durham clean; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Durham values and celebrates the many drivers, collectors, equipment operators, site and scale house attendants, crew supervisors, customer service, and administrative personnel employed to serve the residents of Durham.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Steve Schewel, Mayor, and the City Council of the City of Durham, do hereby proclaim the week of June 14 – 18, 2021 as, in Durham, and hereby urge all residents to acknowledge the many services provided through Solid Waste and to recognize the contributions that sanitation workers make every day to our health, safety, comfort and quality of life.

“NATIONAL WASTE AND RECYCLING WORKERS WEEK”

Witness my hand and the corporate seal of the City of Durham, North Carolina, this the 7th day of June 2021.

Stephen M. Schewel
Mayor
